

THE ROTARY CLUB OF NORTH VANCOUVER WHEEL SQUEALS

October 6, 2008

Created and Produced by Dan Eisenhauer

As he usually does, smiling Charlie Derban met us at the door, took our $22, recorded our attendance, and gave us our raffle ticket, well, most of us, anyway.

Fred Sverre led us in O Canada - a robust, rip roaring, and mildly raucous rendition. Bob McKilligan led us in a fitting Rotary invocation.

Guests: We had three guests grace us with their presence this evening - Mara Creighton, Colin McSween, and Paulette LaCroix.

Announcements, Activities and Requests for Participants

John Ward announced that Esio had been working hard to bump up the number of wineries participating in the wine festival. John said that it now stands at 22, with at least 12 restaurants currently committed

Sergeant-At-Arms - (Deborah Sommerfeld)

Deb asked another one of her unanswerable questions, making all of us, or at least most of us, dig into our pockets to contribute to her house renovation fund. (Writer's comment: I am sure that is why she asks questions no one has any idea what the answer is.)

John Stuart had the winning raffle ticket but, alas, was unable to pull the Ace out of Deb's deck.

SPEAKER - There was no speaker, and we broke into three committees (Sponsorship, Donations and Marketing) to discuss the Duck Splash.

The Toast to Rotary International - was ably led by David Philip

The Four Way Test - was equally ably led by Dan Eisenhauer

Adjournment - with nothing further for the good of Rotary, President Elect Norm adjourned the meeting.
