

THE ROTARY CLUB OF NORTH VANCOUVER WHEEL SQUEALS

March 28th, 2011

Created and Produced by Alain Fredette

Front Desk and Opening: Joy Jones faithfully at the desk with a smile.

Guests: Liberal candidate Taleeb Noormohamed introduced himself to the club and thanked the Rotary Club for its involvement in the community.

Greeter: Norm Binion was at the door welcoming everyone.

O Canada: Norman Thomson led the group.

Invocation: Deborah Sommerfeld replaced Rick Mitchell.

Introduction: Taleeb Noormohamed was introduced David Spears.

Announcements:

- David Spears, who attended a district meeting, announced that there is still a need for over-night hosts for the Youth Exchange students coming to the North Shore for RYLA.
- Tan recalled his week and was sporting his unique attire.
- David Spears and Norman Thompson talked about the Duck Splash tickets sale pitch.
- Neil McDonald talked to us about the Japan crisis and the exchange students that are there. He also mentioned hundreds of quilts made by Vancouver volunteers that could be packed and sent to Japan. Also mentioned were shelter boxes that would not fit the situation in Japan.

Sergeant-At-Arms:

Alec Wallace managed to get some spare change out of the pockets of Rotary members who did not sell a certain percentage of tickets.

The nightly draw was won by Michael Schelhaas again and he picked the 6 of Clubs, leaving the loot intact.

Toast to Rotary International: Michael Schelhaas.

The 4-Way Test: Wendy Law.

Adjournment: David Spears
