

THE ROTARY CLUB OF NORTH VANCOUVER WHEEL SQUEALS

Monday August 12, 2013

Created by Bud Fast

As usual, other commitments during the summer holiday season kept members away from our meeting this evening. Guests Pat Fast, David Steverding and Marilynne Nowell helped to round out the group.

Coming Meeting Change

Please note, to accommodate members with other summer commitments, President Deborah has cancelled our August 19 meeting.

Announcements

BC Heart and Stroke Foundation's "Edgemont Stroll" on October 5 is an event to raise awareness about healthy living. They require volunteers and have asked our Club to provide volunteers as well as set up the Rotary Tent and promote Rotary. To volunteer go to www.rollandstroll.ca

Club Assembly / BBQ at President Deborah's home on August 26, at 6:30 pm – a partners' night and bring either an appetizer, salad, or dessert. We need to advise Deb if you are planning to attend. Deborah's address is 2720 Philip Avenue in North Vancouver – Phone 604-987-1737. See you there

Inbound Youth Exchange student, Valentine Beguin, from Belgium will arrive in August. She and the Godey's, her first host family, will attend the BBQ on August 26.

Guest speaker

Our guest speaker, David Steverding, a past member of our club, current member of the Vancouver Police Department squad that polices the Vancouver East End, and recipient of a Queen's commendation for community service work outside his police duties, provided an in depth look at the effect of drugs in our country. He further outlined an initiative he is deeply involved in to bring the hard reality of drug use to youth in our community.
